The agreement covers the replication of the studio's DVDs and Blu-ray discs in all German-speaking countries and in Spain. Sven Deutschmann, CEO at arvato digital services Manufacturing EMEA, said: "We are looking forward to a successful cooperation with MGM. The replication of the MGM titles will take place in our factories in Guetersloh, Germany, and in Madrid, Spain, where we offer the complete value chain, from post-production, replication, fulfillment and distribution/supply chain management, to financial services, and electronic software distribution. The deal is an excellent opportunity for us to demonstrate our high-quality standards and our abilities here in Europe and maybe one day, also on a global basis."
